

Peek into the past

Baby photos show what we looked like in the past.

Photos tell us what it was like in the past.

People change as they grow older.

Toys were different in the past.

Knowledge

- Some photographs and drawings represent the past.
- Time passes as we get older. We can use words for the past like before, yesterday, last week, last year.
- We all start as a baby but grow and change over time.
- Someone's age is the time since they were born.
